Red China Puts New Pressure On Hong Kong

HONG KONG (AP) — Red China put official pressure on Britain today to meet Communist demands in Hong Kong, and Red newspapers in the colony urged Chinese residents to renew anti-British fighting. But Hong Kong was generally quiet.

The Communist campaign unfolded similarly to that in the neighboring Portuguese colony of Macao. After anti-Portuguese rioting there and ominous patrols by Red Chinese gunboats, the colonial administration capitulated to demands for admissions of guilt and compensation to victims.

A Chinese Foreign Ministry note handed to D. C. Hopson, the British charge d'affaires in Peking, accused the British of "fascist atrocities against Chinese workers and residents" and demanded punishment of "all those responsible."

There was no immediate reaction from London.

Both major Communist newspapers in Hong Kong, Ta Kung Pao and Wen Wei Pao, said in front page red-ink stories: "We are not afraid of their concentration camps. They are not big enough to imprison all our Chinese compatriots. We must dare to fight at any time and any place."

The Chinese note told the British: "The Chinese government and the 700 million Chinese people firmly support their compatriots in Hong Kong in their heroic and just struggle and their resolute stand behind them."

The British lifted a dusk-to-dawn curfew Sunday in the six-square-mile industrial district on the outskirts of Kowloon where three days of violence resulted in 389 known arrests, 118 reported injuries and the death of an 18-year-old Chinese youth hit by a rock thrown from a rooftop.

WAVING FLAGS, carrying signs and singing, marchers move down Fifth Avenue in New York City Saturday in march to show support of American servicemen in Vietnam. Central Park is at left. One estimate said the number of marchers could be as high as 250,000. (AP Wirephoto)

Big Rally Supports 'Our Boys In War'

NEW YORK (AP)—The police department, which unofficially estimated the size of parades for many years, has quit the numbers game.

Actually it started its new policy Saturday when it remained silent on the number of marchers down Fifth Avenue in the "Support Our Boys in Vietnam" parade.

The size of the Saturday parade was left to local newspapers. Using mechanical counters, the New York Times put the total of marchers at 70,000, and the New York Daily News figure was 75,000.

Capt. Ray Gimmiller, city fireman and ex-Marine who organized the march, said he was "very distressed" by the newspaper estimates. Gimmiller set the number at between 200,000 and 250,000 marchers.

The Saturday parade was a colorful, eight-hour affair. Thomas Kelly, was one of 11 World War II Medal of Honor winners who led the procession.

Support for the parade came from unions, veterans groups, youth organizations, and ethnic groups. Thousands of marchers carried and waved American flags.

Counter-demonstrators came in for some direct attention by the war supporters.

Two men were smeared with tar and feathers. One demonstrator tried to set fire to a makeshift Russian flag, while another youth tried to burn a Viet Cong flag.

Judge To Hear Speck Plea For Retrial Today

CHICAGO (AP) — The jury said guilty and recommended death. But a legal battle that could reach the U. S. Supreme Court is getting under way in an effort to save Richard Speck from the electric chair.

Speck, 25, was convicted April 15 of the strangling and stabbing murder of eight nurses whose bound, blood-soaked bodies were found July 14, 1966, strewn through four rooms of a town house on Chicago's South Side.

Today, the lean, tattooed defender and his counsel, Public Defender Gerald Getty, will appear before Judge Herbert C. Packer to argue for a new trial and Speck's life.

Getty, 52, is expected to submit that Judge Packer and the prosecution, headed by youthful William Martin, assistant state's attorney of Cook County — Chicago — erred judicially during the trial.

The eight-week trial, drawn out by six weeks of jury selection, was held in Peoria after Judge Packer granted Getty's request for a change of location on the grounds that a fair and impartial jury could not be seated in Cook County.

Martin, 20, has prepared legal arguments against the points of alleged judicial error.

Asks Bomb Halt

MUSKEGON (AP) — Delegates to the annual state convention of the United Church of Christ have adopted a resolution calling for an unconditional halt to the bombing of North Vietnam.

The resolution approved by the 800 delegates Saturday also asked for an immediate scaling down of U.S. military operations in Viet Nam.

Celler Asks, Is Romney Eligible?

NEW YORK (AP)—Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., says a question remains whether Michigan Gov. George Romney is eligible for the presidency.

Romney, considered by many a frontrunner for the Republican presidential nomination, was born in Mexico to American parents.

Celler, appearing Sunday on the WNBC-TV "Searchlight" program, said there was no doubt about Romney's American citizenship. But the head of the House Judiciary Committee noted that the Constitution stipulates that the president must be a "natural born" citizen. Celler suggested that the Republican party appoint some sort of commission to "come up with an answer to this situation."

He said GOP leaders might throw his suggestion "on the ashcan if they wish, but I think this is going to plague Mr. Romney from now on out."

Romney's parents, Gaskell and Anne, fled to Chihuahua, Mexico, along with a number of other Mormons in 1885 when Congress outlawed polygamy, then a common practice in the Mormon Church. George Romney's parents were monogamous.

The governor's parents never gave up their citizenship. They returned to the United States during a period from 1911-12 when the Mormon colony in Mexico was beset by marauders, including Pancho Villa.

Celler said a legal test of Romney's eligibility could be demanded if he appeared in a presidential primary or if he was nominated and elected.

Treehouse Fire Kills Two Boys

LENOIR, N.C. (AP)—Two Lenoir youngsters have died after a fire in a tree house, and a third was burned critically.

Firemen said the boys had apparently built a fire in a bucket in the tree house Saturday night, and then fell asleep. They fell 20 feet to the ground as the house went up in flames.

Roy Ingram, 13, was dead at the scene. Alan Darrel Guy, 12, was rushed to a hospital, where he died several hours later. Gary Groes, 13, was hospitalized in critical condition.

Celler said a legal test of Romney's eligibility could be demanded if he appeared in a presidential primary or if he was nominated and elected.

Lake Shore Inc. Strike Is Ended

Lake Shore, Inc., plants at Iron Mountain and Marquette which have been struck since May 1 were busy again today with the first strike in the firm's more than a century of operation ended. The first shift returned to work last midnight.

The U.S. Steelworkers AFL-CIO and the management reached agreement on Saturday in a bargaining session at Iron Mountain that started on Friday after meetings of the memberships of the two locals. An earlier negotiating session had been held at Ishpeming on May 9 with U.S. Mediator Michael J. Noonan, Green Bay, Wis., and Michigan State Mediator Carl York of Gladstone, who also participated in the final sessions.

The package of gains for the union is 3 cents more an hour than the 48 cent offer made earlier by Lake Shore, which was accepted by the 135 workers at the Marquette plant, but rejected by the 165 workers at the Iron Mountain plant, causing the strike.

The 51 cent an hour increase for the three year contract provides 39 cents in increased wages and the rest in fringes.

Wilderness Syndrome

The "wilderness" concept of land management is getting a great exercise in America.

We have always had wilderness in America and we've got some of it left, but encroachment of settlement and other intrusions upon it have caused a national concern which has resulted in great federal acquisitions so that the people will always have areas where they can go and look backward into time in surroundings that have been very little disturbed by it.

Our increasing city living makes this specially desired by city dwellers. The cause, of course, has developed a professional group who make their living by it and who lobby unceasingly for it, and they have done some good things. The cause is currently in the stage of converting large areas of federal land holdings in light-house reserves, game refuges, forests and other categories into "wilderness" areas. This means that they will be preserved in a state of nature, with no logging, game management, fish planting, etc.

These holdings are already in government ownership so they are being managed in the public interest, which means for the maximum public benefit. Now come the super-patriots among the nature lovers and propose that they be set aside as wilderness. They already are wilderness as the average citizen understands the word, because they are forested, and range for wildlife, but the purists want them put in the deep freeze of government ownership, dedicated forever to wilderness status and not to be touched by man for their improvement.

At a hearing in Marquette on proposal to give wilderness status to 19,000 acres of forest land in the 95,150-acre Seney Wildlife Refuge in Schoolcraft County, a representative of the Marquette County Chapter of the Michigan Audubon Society said that the objections of Forum on Resources of Upper Michigan to the proposal could have been expected "because FORUM had also opposed establishment of the Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore."

This is untrue. FORUM never opposed the Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore; it questioned the plan first proposed by the National Park Service and sponsored by Senator Philip Hart and this plan was changed to the substantial betterment of the project, especially as it affects the economy of the Alger County area, where the lakeshore is located.

Testifying for FORUM were Bruce Buell of Chasell, dean of Upper Peninsula professional foresters, and Dr. Herford Garland, head of the Institute of Wood Research at Michigan Tech, Houghton. These men have great stature as friends of the Upper Peninsula; they have been leaders in the effort to re-establish its forests and to make the wilderness productive of human needs. Neither is unimpaired of esthetic and cultural values in the wilderness and both are immensely informed about the Upper Peninsula's forest resources.

Dr. Garland said: "FORUM believes that the administration and management of the Seney Wildlife Refuge is a professional responsibility and should remain so. The reservation of 19,000 acres of this refuge under the Wilderness Act would severely limit management practices and make it impossible to adapt the area to changing ecological (environmental) conditions through management without the approval of Congress. It is in the interest of the local community, the state and the nation, to continue this area under professional resource management."

FORUM rejected the Department of Interior's suggestion that "some logging would be lost locally but eventually compensated for by income from tourists" and counter suggested that the local economy would be maximized by carefully controlled timber harvesting and development of wildlife through forestry operations helping habitat.

For the mass of tourists, suggested Dr. Garland, the managed forests serves adequately for a "wilderness experience," and the handful of wilderness purists who would visit the study area would compensate very little for the loss of the timber yield.

The federal and state governments now own more than 40 per cent of the Upper Peninsula and nearly all of their ownership is forested. They pay much less for the privilege of holding this land than do the private owners of the rest of the U. P. and they seem little concerned with the struggles of this area to create an economy which will give its people some of the benefits that are being enjoyed elsewhere.

Now they would shackle their contribution to the local economy even more by taking large areas out of productive management and returning them to nature. The population explosion is the proposed justification for this action; creating an alleged need to keep some areas inviolate from the loggers so that they can be hiking grounds for the jaded city people.

The problem is national. Gene Brewer, president of the National Forest Products Association, told 900 of the nation's forest industry leaders in Washington last week "Within the past month our industry has been obliged to rally to resist unthinking Scenic Trails, Wild and Scenic Rivers, National Redwood Park, and North Cascade National Park bills before the U. S. Senate."

"Each of these bills as put forward by the Secretary of Interior would seriously reduce the nation's ability to grow trees and manage them in the public interest. If all were to pass in their present forms the impact upon our public and private commercial timberlands would be catastrophic."

"We are puzzled by the unrelenting attacks upon the proper management of lands in the fundamental public interest. Does the nation ever properly consider that the needs of the many must be paramount, irrespective of the honest desires of the few?"

Disease Threat Feared In India

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The threat of disease hangs as heavy over the heads of people in drought-stricken Bihar State as the threat of death by starvation, and "conditions are absolutely ripe for a widespread cholera epidemic starting with the monsoon rains," reports Alan Berg, head of a U.S. anti-famine program.

Berg says an epidemic can be expected any time after the rains begin because fecal bacteria, "lying all over the place," may be washed into drinking water with disastrous consequences. Cholera, endemic to India, takes a heavy annual toll of lives. It strikes harder at undernourished persons.

The effect could be intensified this year because Biharis by the thousands are on the verge of starvation.

It rains do not come, officials expect many persons to die of starvation or lack of water.

Can't Seem to Get a Ride

Ought To Be A Law

By DAVE BURGIN
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — NEW YORK City has everything, all right. Lots of it, too.

Fun City's Republican mayor, John V. Lindsay, here to address the American Society of Newspaper Editors, was telling hard-bitten newspaper types all about it.

New York, the mayor said, has thousands of men in uniform—police, firemen, a huge sanitation corps.

"One of these days," the tall, handsome Lindsay deadpanned, "we just may hoist our flag, sail up the Hudson and take Albany."

The editors warned. Lindsay then went on to invite them to New York. He paused, switched on a sad countenance and apologized for the closing of—as he put it—"New York's experimental topless club."

"I couldn't make the topless opening myself," Lindsay said, "but 14 police precincts quickly answered the call, including three precincts from New Jersey."

"The police had all arrived by 9 o'clock. I can tell you proudly that by 1 o'clock they had made their first arrest."

Though he didn't get the laughs Lindsay got, New York's Democratic Sen. Robert F. Kennedy possibly won a few hearts among the convening editors.

In a speech before the ASNE, Kennedy had some kind words about fair play and responsibility in the American press. (His remarks were especially welcome after the American press got a thorough tongue-lashing from British publisher Sir Cecil King.)

Afterwards, we suggested that the senator may have "dehorned" himself in the eyes of some critical editors in attendance.

"It's only temporary," Kennedy replied, a twinkle in his eye. "They'll nail me again by tomorrow's afternoon editions."

Rep. John N. Erlenborn's "There-ought-to-be-a-law contest" has turned out to be one of those wish-I-had-thought-of-those ideas for other House members.

The contest closed with more than 2,600 legislative ideas submitted by constituents. The winner will receive an all-expenses-paid two-week trip to Washington where he will be a guest in the House gallery the day the winning idea is submitted.

Cities, Counties Get $99.81 Million In Highway Funds

LANING (AP) — The State Highway Department reports it has started distribution of $99.81 million in Motor Vehicle Highway Fund revenues collected during the first quarter of the year.

The 1967 first-quarter total was $2.81 million more than revenues collected during the same period in 1966.

The money comes from state gasoline and diesel fuel taxes, license plate fees and other revenues collected by the department.

State law provides that 47 per cent of the total goes to the highway department for use on state highways, 35 per cent to the counties for county roads and 18 per cent to the cities and villages for road and street use.

The highway department will receive $46.91 million, the counties $34.93 million and the cities and villages $17.96 million.

mitted in a bill sponsored by Erlenborn, an Illinois Republican.

The contest wasn't without humor. A few suggestions: ● A bill that would abolish Halloween because "it rejuvenates crime."

● A bill stipulating that, in case of war, "the President, the vice president and one-half the Congress immediately shall join in frontline battalion."

● A bill that would require members of the Supreme Court to be given mental competency tests every two years.

● A bill that would ban "there-ought-to-be-a-law" contests conducted by members of Congress.

she wanted to deprive her opponents of the chance to bid spades easily. The best South could do was to try two diamonds. North passed and proceeded to make four odd for a score of 130. At the other table East merely overcalled with one heart. This did not bother South at all. He bid one spade and the bidding proceeded quickly to four spades. South made ten tricks for plus 620 and a net gain of 490 points or ten IMP's.

Jim: "I agree that East's one heart overcall was pointless. It couldn't bother his opponents and might cause his partner to make a bad lead or bad bid based on an idea that maybe East would have something worth - while in hearts. As for Mrs. Markus' two clubs bid, it succeeded so it had to be good."

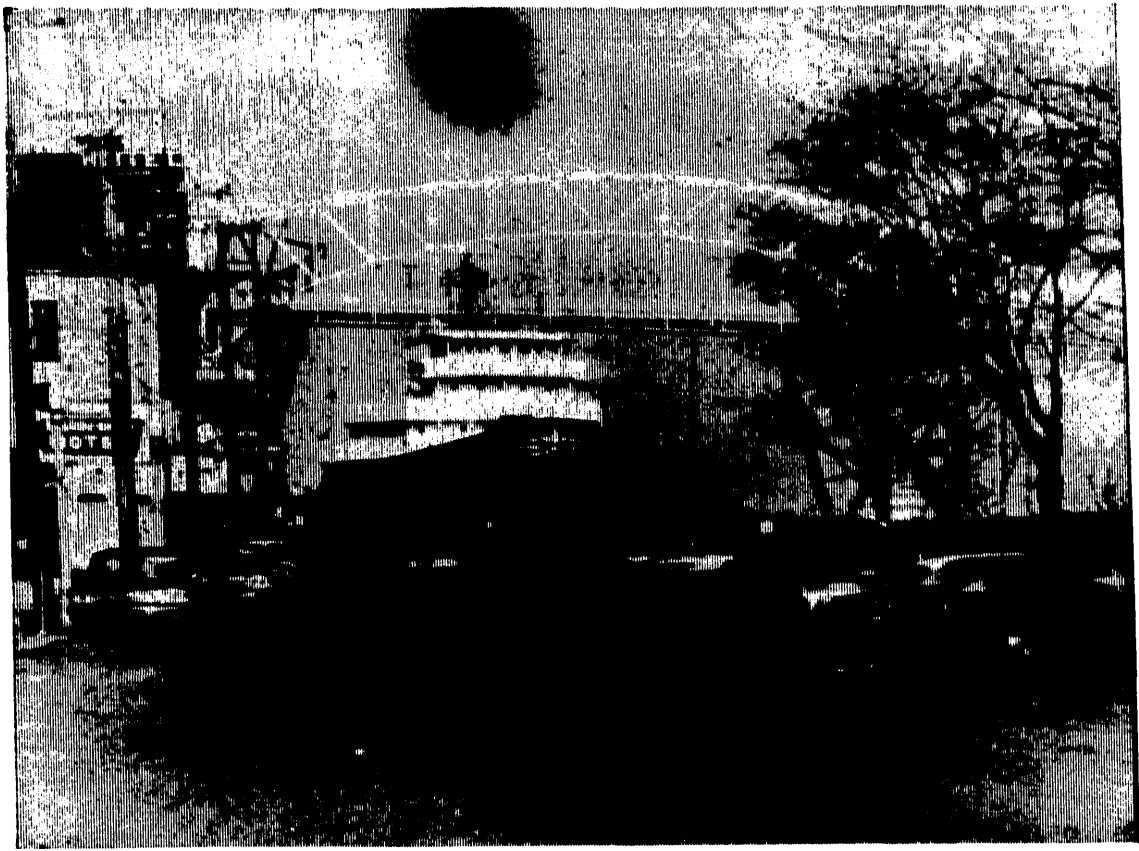

Oswald: "I don't think it would have done her much good in this country. If North and South were using the negative double, South would double and they would reach four spades with North as declarer and even if South bid only two diamonds a good American player would pull himself together and try two spades."

Jim: "How about quoting from Rixi Markus today?" Oswald: "The game was an English team of four tournament with International Match Point scoring. At the table where Rixi sat East, she overcalled North's opening diamond bid with two clubs. She wasn't at all proud of her bid, but as she pointed out

VISITORS TO SAULT STE. MARIE who drive down West Portage Avenue get the impression that they are set for a head-on collision with an ore boat sailing down the street. Local merchants are accustomed to the optical illusion created as boats enter the MacArthur Lock at a point where the street makes a slight curve. Here the steamer Leon Falk, Jr., enters the lock as it glides under the International Bridge. (AP Wirephoto)

Ex-Governors To Tour State For Michigan Week

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's five living former governors will tour the state to kick off the start of the annual Michigan Week celebration May 21-27.

oner, Harry F. Kelly, G. Mennen Williams and John B. Swainson will be honored at a Detroit Economic Club luncheon on Monday of Michigan Week.

They will be joined there by Gov. George Romney and Lt. Gov. William Milliken. Lt. Gov. Milliken will escort the governors throughout their tour, which will include Lansing, Marquette, Iron Mountain, Traverse City and Bay City.

State Must Aid Toll Free Road

LANSING (AP) — The State Appeals Court has ordered the State Highway Department to pay $1.4 million as half of the cost of constructing a toll-free road in Ontonagon County.

The Ontonagon County Road Commission has appealed to the court after the department balked at providing the $1.4 million for the road, as called for in a 1966 legislative act.

The department contended that the road, leading to a mine, was not a state highway and this was not a proper use of highway funds.

The state money was needed to match a federal grant for the road from the Economic Development Administration.

Sen. Joseph Mack, D-Ironwood, argued before the court that the road was especially needed because the State Conservation Department had deprived the county of more than $250,000 a year in tax revenue.

"When the Conservation Department took 57,000 acres of the Porcupine Mountains State Park off the tax rolls, the county lost a great deal of its taxing resource," Mack said.

Mack said Ardale Ferguson, chairman of the State Highway Commission, told him the department will abide by the court decision.

Drop 'Boy' Out Of Boy Scouts

By EDDY GILMORE
LONDON (AP) — Boys, be prepared. On my honor Britain's Boy Scouts Association is taking the "Boy" out of the Boy Scouts.

From now on it will be known as the Scout Association.

"It's completely logical," said a spokesman. "It was felt that by dropping the word Boy from the association's title, the true nature of the movement's work in providing a program of training for youngsters of 8 years to young men in their early 20s could be more faithfully conveyed."

The spokesman said the association has recommended that the Boy Scouts of America also drop their Boy, "but that, of course, is up to the Boy Scouts of America." What would Lord Baden-Powell say? He founded the Boy Scouts 60 years ago this year.

"We believe he would approve," said the spokesman. "He would be the first to see the logic in the change. After all, he was a trend-setter in youth education."

The present Lord Baden-Powell, 30, a scoutmaster and London business executive, commented: "Oh I quite approve, and I've known about the suggestion for some time."

The man behind the move is the chief scout, Sir Charles Hector Fitzroy Maclean, who is 51. What's going to happen to the Girl Guides, called Girl Scouts in the United States?

"The change was considered," said a spokesman, "but we decided to remain Girls."

GOP Splinter Group Is Denied Cash Raising Role

LANSING (AP) — The Republican State Central Committee has ruled that the newly organized United Republicans of Michigan have no right to collect money in the name of the party.

The action came Saturday at a committee meeting. Richard Durant, a conservative who organized the URM, was not present.

Arthur Saltzman, of Franklin, former director of the Michigan Anti-Poverty Program, told his fellow committee members the new Durant group had failed to take control of the GOP in Oakland County.

"Now they are trying to take over by subterfuge," he said.

The committee resolution said that the URM "has not been recognized by the legal Republican party and has not been authorized to raise funds for the Michigan Republican Party."

Copper Reserve For Defense Cut In Third Quarter

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Commerce Department announced Sunday night a reduction in the amount of refined copper producers must reserve for defense use during the third quarter of this year.

It also announced reductions in set-asides for most other copper products categories.

The department's Business and Defense Services Administration said the set-aside for domestic refined copper will be cut from 29 to 26 per cent of the 1965 base period.

At the same time the set-aside for ammunition strip was reduced from 27 to 25 per cent, also beginning with the third quarter. Most other copper set-asides were reduced except for alloyed rod, bar, shapes and wire which will increase from 7 to 10 per cent and for alloyed seamless tube and pipe which goes from 21 to 30 per cent.

Over-all, the department said, the set-asides for copper mill products, wire mill products, copper-base foundry products and copper - base powder mill products will total about 12 per cent of anticipated shipments during the third quarter.

GM Workers Hike Bond Purchasing

DETROIT (AP) — The number of General Motors hourly employees purchasing U.S. Savings Bonds through regular payroll deductions has reached its highest point since World War II. President James M. Roche said.

Approximately 274,000 or 67 per cent of GM hourly employees, are buying bonds through payroll deductions. Almost 90 per cent of GM's salaried employees are participating through the savings-stock purchase program, Roche said. A corporation-wide bond drive was held in mid-April.

Are you willing to go as low as $1795 for a new VW?

We don't sell status. Just a car. One that gets about 29 mpg, averages 40,000 miles on a set of tires, and hardly uses oil between changes.

Of course, the fact that it's practical is no secret. And everybody is going to know that you're saving money. But that's the price you pay for Volkswagen.

Gaylord Wins Pride Award

An outstanding community development that is transforming the business district of Gaylord into one of the most unique showplaces in the state has won the first Michigan Week Community Pride award for this Osego County city of 3,000 people.

Selection of Gaylord for the 1967 award was announced by Milo Hector, Detroit regional manager for the Standard Oil Division of American Oil Co. and state chairman for Community Pride Day, the new eighth special day of Michigan Week which will be observed on Saturday, May 20.

"Our committee selected Gaylord for this new state honor for the transformation that is giving the community the appearance of a Swiss Alpine Village and has already attracted new business and brought about a marked improvement in the city's economy," Hector said.

The project, a cooperative undertaking of the community's businessmen and property owners, is more than half completed with 33 new store fronts which have been built in the Swiss Alpine motif. It is the fulfillment of an idea advanced many years ago by one of the area's civic leaders who sought to make the community a picturesque Swiss village.

There are no vacant stores in Gaylord today and the renovation program continues with more buildings being transformed each month.

In recognition of the award there will be a celebration in Gaylord on Community Pride Day featuring a parade.

Copper Country To Get Doctors

By JEAN WORTH

HANCOCK — Dr. Carl A. Moyer came back to his home Copper Country and joined the Michigan Tech faculty after 35 years of teaching surgery in St. Louis. He was professor and chairman of the Department of Surgery in the Medical College of Washington University.

"That's long enough," he said. Here in the Copper Country he has given his professional skill and leadership to the effort that has resulted in a revolutionary new concept of medical service for the six western counties of the Upper Peninsula. They are Keweenaw, Houghton, Baraga, Ontonagon, Gogebic and Iron.

The Copper Country Health & Welfare Council, Inc., and Michigan State University's new College of Human Medicine have joined in a partnership to provide comprehensive health care and to train medical students in the rural setting of the area.

Medical Innovation "The plan is possible," said Dr. Moyer, who heads the Health Council's Committee on Heart, Cancer and Strokes, "because of the Health Council and the willingness of a state university to extend its efforts."

Saying that "you don't find out what the problems are if you don't engage in it," Dr. Moyer has added to his duties as director of research at Michigan Tech a private practice of medicine in the village of Baraga, population 600. Three nights a week and on Saturday afternoons Dr. Moyer practices medicine in Baraga.

"I'm practicing medicine with facilities that a doctor who graduated in 1910 would have found inadequate," Dr. Moyer told a Wisconsin Regional Medical Program, Inc., meeting at Wingspread, the Johnson Foundation seminar center at Racine last week.

Seldom See Doctor Dr. Moyer said that one quarter of the 91,000 persons living in the six western U.P. counties — an area as large as Connecticut — die without having seen a doctor in the previous five years. In the entire area there is not one specialist in internal medicine, pediatrics or obstetrics and gynecology.

He learned more medical knowledge at the University of Michigan medical school in 1930 than he can use in the Copper Country today, said Dr. Moyer. "I can only use 10 per cent of what I know about vascular surgery because we don't have facilities. You don't have them in the upper 14 counties of Wisconsin either."

He told the meeting that the area's health level would be raised by the teamwork of the Health Council and MSU's new medical college project to train doctors in a rural setting for a rural practice of medicine, and to give medical services to the area in the process.

The solution to the inadequate medical service will be easier in a rustic rural area than in the big cities, said Dr. Moyer at the announcement luncheon here, because there are not so many organizations sponsoring reform that they "get in each other's way. It is practically impossible to get anything done in the big cities because other agencies get their noses out of joint."

Area Witnesses Attend Three Day Conference Delegates to last weekend's Christian assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Sault Ste. Marie were encouraged to have a more "purposeful ministry."

Edward Palmcook, presiding minister of the Escanaba congregation and one of 50 persons from this area to attend the conference, said the program emphasized scriptural suggestions on how purpose can be achieved in one's life by "analyzing and then strengthening the faith of ourselves, our children and our friends through personal assistance and Bible study."

Palmcook explained that counsel received at the Sault assembly will be incorporated into congregation meetings at the local Kingdom Hall.

Escanaba was one of over 50 communities represented at the conference. Over 520 persons from Upper Michigan and Northeastern Wisconsin attended the three-day gathering.

Plans are being made to hold a larger regional Witness convention in the American Sault this summer.

Dogs Help Police Quell Beach Riot

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A beach riot by 1,000 youths, sparked when police tried to break up a fight, injured three officers and two bystanders Sunday.

Before it was over, windows were smashed, resort booths robbed and some bottles were tossed at police.

Two youths were arrested on suspicion of looting and 12 others on charges of inciting a riot, battery and resisting arrest.

One hundred police, armed with shotguns, nightsticks and tear gas, sped to Playland-at-the-Beach and restored order after two hours. The officers did not use the tear gas or the guns but were aided by police dogs in clearing the area.

At the same time, 1,000 hippies thronged the panhandle section of Golden Gate Park, causing police at first to report trouble also brewing there. Later police corrected it to: "Just a happening."

The beach trouble erupted after a fight broke out at a ticket booth. Youths broke windows in the booth and a girl ticket seller fled.

When three policemen arrived, "all hell broke loose," said William Silvia Jr., 24, a Playland employee.

"There were so many people milling around you couldn't tell what was happening," Silvia said.

"But I did see one cop go down. The mob wouldn't let them make that first arrest."

John Ashley, of San Francisco, was cut severely on the head while trying to prevent theft of his wife's purse.

Another bystander, Inez Tebbino, of Santa Rosa, got caught in a mob and suffered fractured ribs.

Two policemen, Francis Fahney, 43, and Harold Hamilton, 28, were cut and a third, Dennis Baker, 28, had a hand injury. All three were taken to a hospital.

Navy pilots raided supply targets in the lower half of North Vietnam.

Saturday's strike force of U.S. fighter-bombers was the heaviest flown over the North in the past six months, the Air Force said. It appeared that the pilots were out to avenge Friday's loss of three U.S. planes.

Raid Missile Site Communist raiders slipped into a Marine Hawk missile installation atop a 1,000-foot peak adjoining Da Nang air base and planted satellite charges that damaged 12 Hawk anti-aircraft missiles and 36 missile launchers.

One missile streaked downhill in flames. Nine Marines were wounded in a brief melee. No enemy casualties were reported.

Five miles west of Saigon Viet Cong guerrillas overran a South Vietnamese battalion compound, killing three of the four American advisers and 27 Vietnamese troops. The guerrillas left behind half a dozen dead and one critically wounded.

The American survivor, a lieutenant, hid under a generator platform as the guerrillas prowled through the compound, shooting wounded soldiers and grabbing their weapons.

The three slain Americans — a captain, a sergeant and a corporal — were shot in or near their communications bunker as they radioed desperately for help.

In case after case, while gentle relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. The secret is Preparation H®—the only formula containing Bio-Dyne®. ## Research Boat Visits Harbor

The Inland Seas, 113-foot research vessel of the University of Michigan visited Manistique harbor Thursday taking water samples as part of a study.

The study of microscopic plants in Lake Michigan from Chicago to the Mackinac Straits has been underway a year and will require two more. Variations in water at the Manistique river mouth and the lake are among the study interests.

A scientific crew of 1 to 15 is aboard the vessel in the project headed by Dr. Eugene Stroemer.

With him here was Dr. Vincent Noble, who is aiding in equipment use, and Ronald Rossman, a graduate student who is taking core samples in the lake bottom for sedimentation studies.

Old routes of coal-burning vessels were studied to determine where cinders might be found. Thirteen samples have been taken thus far, including one in 600 feet of water.

R. Rinehart Speaks At Bark River PTA

Richard Rinehart, president of Bay de Noc College, was a guest at the Bark River-Harris PTA meeting held Thursday night in the high school. He spoke on the proposed millage for the Community College. A question and answer period followed.

Past president Marvin Ray installed the new officers: President, Paul Blewett; Vice-President, William Good; Secretary, Mrs. William Good; Treasurer, Mrs. Melvin Teal; Historian, Mrs. Robert Bell. Program chairmen, Mrs. Harold Bruce and Mrs. Hector Larson, presented the various functions of the teaching faculty. Mrs. Bruce told of library facilities; Blewett the science courses and Mrs. Harvey Arken told of the developmental reading program in the elementary grades.

Following the program, art exhibits and articles representing Michigan Week made by the high school students were on display.

Retiring officers are Rev. Walter Nordin, Francis De-rocher, Mrs. Francis Gaudault, Mrs. Hector Larson and Mrs. James Anderson. The room award was won by the sophomore class. Lunch was served by the high school mothers.

Groceries To Cost More This Summer

WASHINGTON (AP)—American housewives will be paying two to three per cent more for groceries by this summer, the Agriculture Department predicted today.

The anticipated hike in retail food prices is expected to wipe out a decline of nearly one per cent during the first three months of the year, then advance another one or two per cent on top of that.

For the year as a whole, the department forecasts an average jump of about 1.7 per cent in food costs above last year.

Primarily because of the projected price hikes, consumers are expected to spend about $94.6 billion for food this year compared to $91 billion in 1966.

The forecast for higher retail food prices comes at a time when prices paid farmers for food they produce are down nearly 10 per cent from last summer and seven per cent below last year's average.

Some of the expected increase in retail food prices would reflect anticipated upturns in some farm prices, particularly for meat animals. Somewhat reduced marketings of cattle and hogs are expected as a consequence of some contraction in livestock production under the pressure of prices unsatisfactory to farmers.

The department said current indications point to an increase in both production and marketing of farm commodities this year, with the upturn concentrated in crops.

Because consumer incomes went up while food prices eased off slightly, the department said consumers spent an average of 17.5 per cent of their income for food during the first quarter of the year, the lowest of record. Last year, the percentage was 18.5.

Items expected to rise later in the year besides meats include eggs, poultry and possibly some dairy products. Items expected to continue near present levels include citrus products, canned fruits, processed vegetables, potatoes and cereal products.

Sweet Sixteen Birthday Party

A Sweet Sixteen Birthday party was held in honor of Miss Barbara McMahon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McMahon, and Mr. Dan Salmon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Salmon, both of Hyde. The party was held in the Ford River Township Hall on Friday evening.

Forty guests attended the party and records provided the music for dancing. Games were played and guests awards were won by Kelly Wellman and Chuck Makosky. Decorations were blue and white.

Following dancing lunch was served by Mrs. Ray Salmon and Mrs. John McMahon.

Episcopalians Hold Annual Convention

Change within the never changing framework of God's love was the theme running throughout the 72nd annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Northern Michigan and the annual meeting of the Women of the Diocese held in Trinity Church, Houghton, last Thursday and Friday.

At the opening banquet Thursday evening at Michigan Tech's Memorial Union, members of both conventions and many visitors from across the Diocese heard the Rt. Rev. John E. Hines, D.D., presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

The Rt. Rev. Herman R. Page, D.D., retired Bishop of the Diocese of Northern Michigan, was honored by the convention on the occasions of his 75th birthday and the 50th anniversary of his ordination. Mrs. Page was also paid tribute for her years of self-effacing devotion to her husband and his work.

Gifts representative of the various areas of the Diocese were presented to Bishop Hines, Bishop Page, and the Rt. Rev. George R. Selway, D.D., present Bishop of the Diocese, by Clifford Lewis, Curtis, toastmaster for the evening.

Thank Offering
On Friday morning, actual convention sessions opened with the service of Holy Communion celebrated by Bishop Selway. A highlight of the service was the presentation of the United Thank Offering of the Women of the Diocese.

This offering and others like it taken in the last three years, will be presented in September at the triennial meeting of Episcopal Churchwomen and the general convention of the Episcopal Church in Seattle, Wash. At that time, the women of the Diocese of Northern Michigan will give approximately $12,500 as their triennial United Thank Offering.

This sum, added to those of other Diocesan Churchwomen all over the country, will be used for special grants, large and small, throughout the world.

In addition to acceptance of reports of various Diocesan committees, elections were held for several Diocesan posts. Chosen as members of Bishop and Council for three year terms were the Rev. Messrs. William W. Weidrich, Houghton, Reno W. Kuehnle, Ishpeming, and William Greer, Marquette.

Laymen named to that body were Keith Wangberg, Negaunee; Charles Follo, Escanaba, and Gary Brown, Menominee. Waldo Carlson, Iron Mountain, was elected to fill an unexpired term till 1969.

Elected to the standing committee were Mr. Lewis and the Rev. Robert J. Yonkman, Negaunee. Clayton P. Frei, Marquette and Walter Drevdahl, Sault Ste. Marie, were re-elected members of the trust association. Joseph Neudert, Menominee, was again named Diocesan treasurer.

Convention also voted to memorialize the general convention to the effect that the Diocese of Northern Michigan as a matter of record would favor granting permission for lay administration of the chalice at Holy Communion services on special occasions, with permission of the Bishop.

Women's Officers
Mrs. Henry Ask, Sault Ste. Marie, was elected President of the Women of the Diocese, succeeding Mrs. James Fyvie of Manistiquie. Other new officers are: First Vice President, Mrs. Harrison Cowan, Sault Ste. Marie; Second Vice President, Mrs. Dan Croci, Iron Mountain; Secretary, Mrs. Leonard Peterson, Iron Mountain, and Treasurer, Mrs. W. S. Jones, Jr., Menominee.

The women presented Bishop Selway with a check for the Diocesan Women's Project for the past year — erection of a summer chapel in Curtis. The new building is now being erected and will soon be consecrated.

Mrs. Lloyd W. Howe, Marquette, was honored by the women for her loyalty and devotion during more than 25 years as treasurer of the Women of the Diocese.

Marijuana May Be Legalized Says Doctor At MSU

EAST LANSING (AP) — The director of the Michigan State University Health Center says marijuana probably will be legalized within the next two to five years.

"I think the present laws are being handled in a very poor way," said Dr. James S. Feurig. "Present controls should be taken off."

Feurig told a student committee studying marijuana that he thought the drug would be reclassified by the federal government from an addictive drug to an intoxicant and subsequently legalized.

Use of the drug probably will be restricted by age as is liquor, he said.

Feurig said he thought people who use the drug do so for the thrill of doing something illegal and because they enjoy the pleasure.

"Marijuana simply elevates a person's mood," he said. "This effect lasts longer and does not produce a stupor as does alcohol."

Feurig added that use of marijuana "is not a medical problem" at MSU, although "it would be naive to say no one is smoking it on campus."

Buckeyes Snare First Place In Big Ten Battle

By The Associated Press
Ohio State's Buckeyes, all but discounted from the Big Ten baseball race a little more than a week ago, are back in first place, aiming for a third straight championship.

The Buckeyes swept a doubleheader from Purdue Saturday, 3-0 and 7-1, to run their victory streak to six games while Minnesota dropped a doubleheader to Michigan, 3-2 and 5-4, to fall into second place, one-half game behind Ohio State.

Although the season ends Saturday, the race could be decided Friday when Ohio State invades Minnesota for a doubleheader. On Saturday, Ohio State goes to Iowa for a pair and Minnesota stays home to face Indiana twice.

Northwestern jolted Wisconsin's hopes Saturday with a 9-0 victory while Iowa eliminated Michigan State with a doubleheader.

Michigan could sneak in if Minnesota and Ohio State split and then run into at least one more loss on Saturday.

If the top three teams all run into difficulties then Wisconsin (8-5) or even Iowa (7-6) could lay claim to the title by either one sweeping four games.

Wisconsin is in Illinois for a pair Friday and then winds up at Purdue in a Saturday doubleheader. Iowa plays Indiana twice Friday before engaging Ohio State twice Saturday.

Driver's Son Breaks Mark

DARLINGTON, S.C. (AP) — Lee Petty's NASCAR record of 54 victories in a career was surpassed in the Rebel 400 stock car race at Darlington Saturday, but Petty doesn't appear concerned about the situation.

The important thing, from the retired Petty's viewpoint, is that another Petty — son Richard — snapped the old mark.

Richard piloted his 1967 Plymouth to victory No. 55 despite a six-car crashup shortly after the green racing flag was waved, and also despite a hard-charging David Pearson in a new Holman-Moody Ford.

Petty, from Randleman, N.C., averaged 125.671 miles per hour for the one-lap triumph although there were five caution flags for a total of 31 laps. The Randleman Rocket led 266 of the 291 lap race over the mile and three-eighths banked track.

Since retiring from race driving in 1961, the elder Petty has turned to producing topnotch cars for his son, as attested by the fact that Richard has gotten the checkered flag more times than any other NASCAR driver in history.

The win earned Petty $13,894, and was the first major victory for Chrysler Corp. this season.

Third was Dick Hutcheson of Camden, S.C., driving a Ford. Bobby Allison of Hueytown, Ala., drove his Dodge home fourth and Sam McQuigg of Columbus, Ga., finished fifth in a Mercury.
